

Trainee Lawyer (m/f) for the lawyers or elective trainee stage

A world alive with creativity – We at Wacom are looking for people who share our passion for a creative world. We are a global company with more than 1200 employees in 40 countries. For more than 30 years we have been proud to deliver innovative digital technologies to support all aspects of human creativity. Our creative products and services help industry leaders in film and 3D animation, industry design, digital art, game development and a broad range of communication and expression.

At Wacom we believe in the power of ideas. Great new ideas can come from anywhere, anytime and to anybody. We constantly develop and integrate new hardware and software to help everyone capture, express, shape and share ideas. Our mission is to inspire and equip people to make the world a more creative place.

As we continue to grow, we are looking for innovative colleagues who are open to new possibilities, people who dream big and put their heart and soul into what they do. Come and join us and share our passion for a creative world.

Trainee Lawyer (m/f) for the lawyers or elective trainee stage Rechtsreferendar/in (Anwalts- oder Wahlstation)

As a member of the Global Legal Team based in our European office at Düsseldorf's Medienhafen you will be working closely with our in-house legal team mainly in the field of commercial and IT law. You will have the opportunity to get a deep insight in the work of an in-house lawyer while working on a wide range of tasks in an international IT company.

Your Tasks:

- Close cooperation with Corporate Counsels supporting local and global colleagues and projects around the world
- Work on current legal questions and find innovative practical solutions to enable business in the field of hardware sales, software licenses, eCommerce and many more
- Draft and review documents and contracts in the area of commercial and corporate law, compliance, IP rights and copyright law

Your Skills:

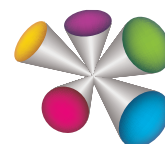

- You passed successfully your first state exam (minimum degree "befriedigend")
- Good proven knowledge of English language both written and spoken
- High team spirit and communication skills
- Independent and hands on working mentality while having an eye for the details
- Proficient in Word, Excel, PowerPoint
- Ability to multi-task and work effectively in a fast-paced environment

We Offer:

- Becoming part of the team gaining deep insights on every day work
- Participation in regional and international meetings, experiencing legal counselling on international level
- We are flexible on the degree of commitment and are willing to remunerate accordingly

To become a member of our global team please send us your application consisting of a cover letter, and CV to jobs@wacom.eu. Learn more about us on wacom.com

Wacom Europe GmbH . Völklinger Straße 1 . 40219 Düsseldorf

wacom®

for a creative world™